TROOPS IN UNIFORM TO BE ENTERTAINED

Churches Announce Program Services to Be Held Today.

With many members of Sousa's Band in attendance and augmented with the already countless number of oldiers and sailors in and about the city, the entertainments at the various churches, arranged by the Disrict war service commission's committee on church hospitality, wer crowded to their capacity.

Every form of amusement, ranging from dancing, bowling and vaudeville, were introduced, to the great delight of the sailors and soldiers assembled. The functions arranged by the war service commission has proven so successful that a program has been arranged for today. All men in uniform are invited to attend these services.

The program for today follows: 5:30 p. m.-At the Hamline M. E. Church, Ninth and P streets northest, the Epworth League will serve music.

5:15 to 7 p. m.—At the Church of the Covenant, Connecticut avenue
and Eighteenth street northwest.
Light supper for men in uniform and
for young people in the government service. The supper will be followed by a social hour and special program.

I know a man of remarkable natural powers who has achieved very little, because all his life he has been handicapped by his expectancy of ill health, of diseace. He came from a consumptive family. Most of his ancestors had died of consumption. In his youth everybody kept reminding him that he had probably inherited disease, and he grew up with that conviction so fixed in his mind that he never expected to be strong or really well or to live long.
